GUIDANCE: This supplementary information will be attached to DD Form 1396 - 1. This supplement has been designed to prevent the disclosure of sensitive information to foreign nationals and to provide for a collector's assessment of subject. Sensitive information of an operational nature which must be tightly controlled (paragraph 7b, DIAI 58 - 13) should not be included in this supplement. Where practicable, the following information will be furnished
51. POLICE RECORD (Other than minor violations). Unknown
52. RELIGION - Effect of subject's religion or religious connections on his actions, military advancement, political views, etc. (b)(6)
53. ACQUAINTANCES AND RELATIVES - Apparent influence of acquaintances and relatives on subject's views or career. Brigadier General (RE) Juan CARRANZA ZAVARIAS (retired in 1973 upon return of Peron is now working in Planning Ministry and reportedly is influential. He attended French War College and Inter-Force Superior School in Paris from 1960-63. Apparently shares pro-French (Europe) bias with DIAZ BESSONE. DIAZ BESSONE was one of CARRANZA ZAVARIAS subordinates in the Planning Secretariat in 1972.
54. CHARACTER - Subject's character, strengths and weaknesses, intelligence, loyalty, judgment, ability to communicate, leadership ability, and influence. Significance of individual in shaping international policies of his country. Subject's principal trait is his strength and resolve. He exudes authority, but does not abuse or run roughshod over subordinates. That people fight for the privilege of putting in 20 hour days as his subordinate attests to his leadership ability. While he has an excellent ability to communicate face-to-face, in a recent hour long television address he did not come across well. As the senior minister of government he obviously will exercise great influence in shaping policy. One significant weakness may keep him out of the Presidency, and that is his unsuccessful marriage. It is questionable whether the Argentine people, or more specifically the rather prudish Argentine Army, would accept him as a replacement for VIDELA, who is a paragon of Argentine Catholic virtue. (b)(3) 10 U.S.C. 424
55. POLITICAL ORIENTATION - Attitude towards United States and other countries. Remarks and actions of subject toward representatives of the United States and its allies, and to representatives of nonaligned nations and Communist bloc nationals. Political activities and attitudes, important political contacts, party affiliations, potential political influence in country in the event of a change in government. Subject admires the US and wants Argentina to emulate the US where possible, but he does not have a personal or sentimental attachment to the US, feeling much closer to Western Europe. This results from his heritage (Spanish on father's side, Italian on mother's) as much as from his personal experiences. He is strongly anti-communist and is convinced that Argentina's current subversion is Marxist oriented and is aided and encouraged from the US and Western Europe, especially by the liberal press. For more on his political views see referenced IR's and Amembassy message. 56. PERSONAL APPEARANCE - Appraisal of subject's dress, personal habits, mannerisms, eccentricities, peculiarities of speech and gait, prominent or unusual physical features, e.g., teeth, eyes, shape of face, complexion, tendency toward balding, etc.

General DIAZ BESSONE is a striking officer. He looks, walks and talks like a general. He is well groomed, wears tailored uniforms and civilian clothing and is impeccable in his dress. Subject is graying at the temples and appears to be a very distinguished gentleman. He speaks very clearly and in a well organized manner imparting an impression of strength.

57. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON SPOUSE - Spouse's political views, appearance, personality, attitude toward United States and other countries, influence on husband. Spouse's family connections influencing the husband's career.

Apparently there is very little possibility for a reconciliation.

58. ADDITIONAL COMMENTS:

a. Length of time collector has known subject and frequency of contact(s). Indicate how much of the information is based on the collector's own observation. Indicate other sources for information on subject.

Sec. 3.3(b) (1);(b)(3):10 USC 424

b. Best ways of gaining subject's confidence and exerting influence on him.

Subject is an amiable person who is interested in a variety of topics. A straight forward approach would be the best method to obtain his confidence and military subjects would be good for openers. He is fond of classical music and one schooled in this topic could use the subject effectively. He enjoys talking about his experiences in Europe while a student (1957-59). Subject has a large ego and one might gain his confidence by flattery, but this would have to be done very deftly over an extended

Sec. 3.3(b) (1)

Sec. 3.3(b) (1)

c. Military reputation, competence, and significance. Include financial status, dependence on personal or political connections for military position. Reputation in own service, collector's own assessment of military competence, and military and/or political potential of subject.

Subject is proud of being the most senior man of his military academy class still on active duty. Actually, he stood #3, but one senior died and the other retired. While he has a good reputation as a troop commander, a hard, but firm, taskmaster, and a tireless worker, he is particularly respected by most army officers as an intellectual. He basks in this reputation and likes to think of himself as a philosopher, and a futurologist. Although he denies that he is personally ambitious, he impresses RO as a man who has prepared himself all his life to be a national leader and as one who is convinced that he will eventually wield great power. As Planning Minister, and acting President when LTG VIDELA leaves the country, he finds himself in a favorable position. When VIDELA leaves office, for whatever reason, it is very likely that his classmates will also leave and turn over the reigns to a junior class. There is historical precedence for this. DIAZ BESSONE is the senior man in the class behind VIDELA'S. Therefore, DIAZ BESSONE must at this writing be considered the most likely successor to VIDELA both as Army Commander and President.
